

The RDCU developed by eleggricks BV compensates the radar picture fault when the radar is mounted on an aerorig or any other rotating platform.

Features:

- Compensates for all radar picture presentation modes like: True motion, Relative motion, Course up, North up, North up.
- Fully solid state.
- No interference with radars original software
- No complicated hardware.
- No extra mast for radar needed.

